FIELD ENFORCEMENT DIVISION
REGULATORY AND LICENSING SECTION
410-260-7314

NOTICE TO RETAILERS

If wine and/or distilled spirits have been delivered to a retail licensee by a wholesaler or manufacturer on or before the PURCHASE DATE indicated in Column I, and payment is not received by the wholesaler on or before the corresponding DUE DATE listed in Column II, then the retailer is considered by state regulation to be overdue. Retailers can avoid most problems associated with late mail deliveries by mailing remittances at least five (5) days before the specified DUE DATES.

Regulation 03.02.01.04 requires Maryland wholesalers and manufacturers who sell wine and distilled spirits to retailers to (1) report the retailer to the Licensing & Registration Unit for late payment (even if payment was received after the due date) and (2) simultaneously notify the retailer that a report has been submitted to the Licensing & Registration Unit. Reports and notifications must be made for all late payments. The Licensing & Registration Unit will determine whether or not the retailer is placed on the credit control list.

THE THREE-TIER ALCOHOL DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM

WHY IT WORKS

For over 79 years, the beverage alcohol industry has successfully served consumers and communities by distributing wine, spirits and beer through a three-tier system of licensed suppliers, wholesalers and retailers. Every state established this system after the repeal of Prohibition in 1933. Designed to prevent the abuses that led to Prohibition, the three-tier system has created the most innovative, competitive and consumer-friendly system in the world today.

Because of the three-tier system, Americans have access to an astounding variety and selection of products in every category, at reasonable and dependable prices.

The three-tier system is the model of social responsibility. Suppliers, wholesalers and retailers all play a crucial role in providing outstanding choice and availability, while protecting the integrity and quality of alcoholic beverages.

The system creates a framework of regulations, which mandates responsibility and accountability in beverage alcohol distribution.

Consumers benefit from the three-tier system every day through lower prices and greater selection. Boutique distillers and wineries are able to get their products to a wider range of outlets, and small retailers have access to a greater variety of product at lower prices through wholesalers.

BENEFITS OF THREE-TIER REGULATIONS

- Efficiency in collecting taxes
- Preventing the sale of alcohol to minors
- Fostering and overseeing responsible competition
- Creating balance between and within the tiers
- Ensuring public safety
- Preventing the sale of counterfeit and dangerous or deadly products

THE TIERS

SUPPLIERS

Producers of wine and spirits, such as wineries and distilleries, as well as importers.

DISTRIBUTORS

Intermediaries that purchase wine and spirits from suppliers to efficiently distribute to retailers.

RETAILERS

A variety of stores, as well as restaurants, bars, stadiums and hotels, that sell wine and spirits to consumers for consumption.

Disrupting this regulated chain would have disastrous ramifications on public safety and marketplace stability.

Vertical integration would benefit only large-chain businesses. And while it might encourage lower prices on select, mass-marketed items through big-box stores, it will cost the consumer, other players in the market and state governments in the end. Prices will likely increase; retailers will be driven out of business; innovation will decrease; consumer choice will be limited; tax revenues will decline; state regulatory expenses will increase; and jobs will be lost.

WHISKEY A-GO-GO

Whiskey, by its very nature, needs to be distilled, aged and bottled. That takes time. And so it is rather impressive brand new ones are cropping up. Credit to the marketers? In any event, new bottlings present a great opportunity for merchants to encourage trial; research suggests that today's brown spirits sippers are more open to experimentation than those of yesteryear. Here are a few fresh to market.

The latest release in Glenmorangie Single Malt Whisky's Private Edition series, Bacalta, takes its name from Scots Gaelic for baked. Overseen by Dr Bill Lumsden, heavily toasted American oak casks seasoned by Malmsey wine—the sweetest and most prized of the Madeira wines—lend layers of sun-baked sweetness to Glenmorangie Bacalta. Non chill-filtered; 92 proof; SRP $99.99. glenmorangie.com

White whiskey—aka moonshine or white lightning—gets coddled by 3 Badge Beverage Corporation's Mixology division. The result is Bib & Tucker Small Batch White Whiskey, double distilled using a column still followed by an old-fashioned pot still. Minimal oak contact (24 hours) allows the whiskey to gain structure, body and faint coloring. SRP $40; 92 proof. 3badge.com

Craft + Estate, a member of The Winebow Group, is bringing in two new whiskies. New to the Wolfburn range, The Aurora Single Malt was aged in a combination of American oak and Oloroso Sherry casks, yielding an intriguing balance of sweet and savory notes. SRP $63; 92 proof. The first release of the Marquess Series from Tullibardine, The Murray, pays homage to an historic Scot, Sir William Murray; the whisky has been laid down in first-use bourbon barrels; bottled at cask strength. SRP $75; 112 proof. craftandestate.com

Anchor Distilling is bringing the sought-after New Zealand Whisky Collection to the U.S. Founder Greg Ramsay discovered hundreds of barrels of cask strength whiskies that had been distilled in the world's most southern distillery in Dunedin, by Canada's Seagram's. The distillery had been mothballed at the end of the 20th century, the quietly maturing barrels are now being bottled. Anchor will import four expressions, each 375ml; SRPs $84.99-$229.99. anchorsf.com

The trick is LED technology and laser-cut glass

BELVEDERE VODKA LIGHTS UP THE NIGHT (CLUB)

Via LED technology and laser-cut glass, Belvedere Vodka is again turning heads in Miami, Las Vegas and NYC. Their Midnight Saber follows the path "blazed" by previous limited releases of the Night Saber (2012) and Silver Saber (2014). The electrified, luminous 1.75L bottles really grab attention from across a dark room, which, of course, is why it's tailored for clubs with bottle-service menus. The bottle stays lit for hours and is also waterproof, so ice buckets are fine. belvederevodka.com

BAILEYS BREAKS NEW GROUND WITH ALMANDE

Fermentation and distillation are ancient, so it is rare to find something actually new under the beverage alcohol sun, but Baileys Almande definitely brings a fresh take on a traditional liqueur. This dairy- and gluten-free spirit blends the nutty flavors of real almond milk with vanilla. Serve alone over crushed ice or mixed into a cocktail; the signature Baileys Almande Refresh calls for 3 ounces each of Almande and coconut water over ice... perfect for the post-yoga crowd. SRP $21; 26 proof. baileys.com

• Mexikaner Old Fashioned

Created by Willy Shine,
Jägermeister Brand Meister

Ingredients:

1 part Jägermeister	Absinthe Rinse
1 part Añejo Tequila	Orange Peel
¼ part Agave Nectar	Star Anise

Method: Rinse old fashioned glass with absinthe. Build remaining ingredients in the glass. Stir to temperature. Garnish with orange peel and star anise.

Tequila 2.0

See what it can do with Jägermeister and absinthe

BY MEGHAN RILEY

While the Old Fashioned, despite its name, has gone through countless permutations, its traditional base of whiskey or bourbon is typically kept in place. Not so in the case of Jägermeister Brand Meister Willy Shine's Mexikaner Old Fashioned, swapping whiskey for equal parts Jäger and Añejo tequila.

"The inspiration was to use two of my favorite spirits in my favorite cocktail," he says of building this new Old Fashioned. As an added touch, he also applies an absinthe rinse: "Absinthe has a distinct herbal anise and earthy profile that marries well with both spirits."

Shine adds that bartenders mixing this and other Jägermeister cocktails will do so using the brand's new bottle design, which features more squared-off shoulders and is ergonomically easier to grip and pour. "We have received positive feedback from many bartenders, and I happen to agree that the new bottle fits and feels much better in hand while pouring," he notes. ■

Orange peel and star anise are used as garnishes to pull together contrasting flavors of sweet, smoky and bitter.

MARYLAND WINE

MARYLAND WINE IS...

GOOD FOR WINE LOVERS

Maryland's 75 wineries produce superb, handcrafted wines that compete with national brands, while highlighting all the benefits of buying local.

GOOD FOR AGRICULTURE

Maryland wineries support (and grow!) over 700 acres of grapes throughout the state. Grapes are a long-term crop, preserving open space and encouraging land preservation.

GOOD FOR TOURISM

Our industry attracts nearly 400,000 visitors annually to our wineries and wine festivals and events. These visitors spend their dollars at wineries, neighboring restaurants and accommodations.

GOOD FOR MARYLAND

Our wineries provide employment and tax revenue, supporting Maryland's rural economy by creating jobs that create tourism, preserve land and encourage agriculture. Maryland's wineries create $100 million in economic activity annually.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Facebook and Twitter @MDwine and be a part of the growth of great local wine industry.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that only 3 out of every 100 bottles of wine sold in the state are bottles of Maryland wine. It's not a lot, but it's growing, and if you buy more local wine, you create more local jobs, grow more vineyards and help preserve our rural economy.

JOIN MARYLAND WINE MONTH

We're promoting stores and restaurants that support Maryland wine during Maryland Wine month in March.

AS A CONDITION OF SALE: Invoices not paid within two (2) weeks after due dates established by the Alcohol Tobacco Tax Division (ATTD) for payment of such invoices are subject to one and one-half percent (1½ %) per thirty (30) days late payment charges. All merchandise at prevailing prices subject to availability. All payments made on delinquent accounts apply first to late payment charges and the remainder, if any, applies to delinquent balance. There will be a service charge of $50.00 for all returned checks. For any returns due to account closings permitted by state regulation (excluding permanent accounts with seasonal closings), there will be a 15% return-to-stock fee. Customers shall pay collection costs of 15% of invoice amount if the claim is referred to an attorney or agency for the purpose of collection. Our invoice prices include the following "less than full case charge"

per bottle:

1.75L/1.5L or Larger . . .	1.20
1.0L .....	1.60
750ml/720ml/500ml.....	1.45
375ml/330ml/200ml/187ml	1.29
100ml	1.25
50ml .....	.45

A refundable deposit on the sale of keg products. If empty kegs are not returned, the cost of the cooperage may be assessed. Minimum requirements for delivery: bottles or cases totalling 3 cases, or an order of $100.00.

The prices listed in the Beverage Journal are subject to change.

Please note: Items that are only sold by full cases, are made with an F/C. All beer products are sold full case only.

Less than full case purchases are subject to a split case charge.

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE

SOMMELIER MARIKA VIDA DISCOVERS WHAT ALSACE OFFERS THAT NO OTHER REGION CAN

Alsace is possibly one of the most intriguing wine regions I've ever explored. As a sommelier, it's long been on my must-visit list for the breathtakingly picturesque views and stunning Rieslings. While those aspects certainly did not disappoint, my message to sommeliers who think they know what the region has to offer is: Take another look.

FOOD PAIRING LITERACY

I was blown away by the sophisticated, sommelier-style approach of the Alsatian winemakers. They represent the food-savviest group I've come across. In fact, I was hard-pressed to meet a winemaker who within the first five minutes did not talk about what specific dish their wine would pair with. For Albert Seltz of Domaine Albert Seltz it was roasted zucchini with his old-vine Sylvaner. Ann Trimbach singled out foie gras for her Reserve Personnelle Pinot Gris. Food pairing simply dominates much of winemaker conversation. As Céline Meyer, one of the sisters of Domaine Jostmeyer, put it: "What can we say? We make wine that goes with food."

HAPPILY OAK-FREE

The absence of oak has a lot to do with this, and for that we can thank the Germans. Alsace is truly a confluence of cultural, political and culinary influences. Having been ruled by Germany for several periods throughout history, the culture left its mark in the signature flute wine bottle still used today, as well as its cuisine, from the national gastronomic treasure of choucroute, to tarte flambé, spaetzli and Muenster cheese (pounds of which I brought home). Alsace's four "noble" white grapes—Riesling, Pinot Gris, Gewürztraminer and Muscat—offer a purity of fruit that perfectly complements this cuisine, as well as a range of international fare, in part because there is simply no oak to mask them. Hence the slogan of the region "Pure Expression Des Vins d'Alsace."

BANG FOR BUCK

While not necessarily known for bargains, Alsace in fact offers tremendous value, particularly when compared to similarly intense, complex white wines made elsewhere. It's easy to find solid quality Alsatian wines at your local retailer for less than $20. Laurent Chapuis of Princeton Corkscrew in Princeton, NJ, notes: "The pricing for wines from Alsace is astonishing considering the quality of what they are producing and how they are farming." Because of their quality-for-price ratio—and the fact that "Alsace can match any dish on the planet from Chinese take-out to high-end French"—he stocks Alsatian wines at the front of his store so it's the first thing shoppers see.

Marika Vida-Arnold is Wine Director of the Ritz-Carlton Central Park, where she created the acclaimed Phenomenal Femmes dinner series. Via her consulting firm, Vida et Fils, she works with Architectural Digest and Wines of Provence. She is a Certified Sommelier with the Court of Master Sommeliers and the American Sommelier Association.

Even at the high-end, Alsace over-delivers: Nicole Hakli, wine director of Acme in NYC, has steals like the 2001 Grand Cru Brand from Zind-Humbrecht for $120. Try finding anything near that value from Burgundy!

FEMMES D'ALSACE

There are some regions in France that, shall we say, have been more reluctant in embracing their feminine side. As a passionate promoter of female winemakers around the world, I am pleased to report that the opposite is true in Alsace, which has become a mecca of strong, pioneering women winemakers.

At Domaine Weinbach (the historic winery completely surrounded by 35 miles of high walls established in 1612 by Capuchin Monks), almost as impressive as our 20-wine tasting was Catherine Faller's homemade Baeckeoffe, a slow-baked stew sealed in a ceramic casserole dish with meats and vegetables marinated in Alsatian wine.

I had the pleasure of attending a tasting organized by the DiVINES D'Alsace—a group of female winemakers, winegrowers, saleswomen and somms dedicated to promoting the wines of Alsace. Afterward, I spoke with winemaker Melanie Pfister of Domaine Pfister who started DiVINes with fellow winemaker Sylvie Spielmann (who took over her family's estate from her father in 1990). She explained that there was no opposition to women (or "the group") because the women were already working alongside the men: "We have the same goals as the men: We want to discard the 'Old Style Image' of Alsace and showcase the wines we are making today, both men and women."

SYLVANER IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Few head to Alsace in search of Sylvaner, yet it ended up being one of my happiest discoveries. In the words of Albert Seltz, Sylvaner is "the pretty girl that no one asks to the dance." The non-noble grape had largely fallen out of fashion, but when made with care (Seltz champions sustainable farming, ultra-low yields, minimal intervention), Sylvaner can be divine, offering "minerality and salinity like a fresh oyster."

Seltz helped arrange an exception for Sylvaner so it may now be planted in the Grand Cru Zotzenberg Vineyard, which is dry-farmed (an amazing feat, considering that Alsace is the driest region in France). Other producers are also taking the grape seriously—Weinbach, Barmes Beucher and Ostertag to name a few.

Word is starting to spread and Sylvaner is seeing a resurgence in trend-setting wine programs. Zwann Grays, Beverage Director at Le Turtle says Barmes Beucher Sylvaner is her staff's favorite by the glass pour, "We can pour the Chardonnay and the Sauvignon Blanc and it's an automatic nod of approval. But, with the Sylvaner, we watch our guests really experience something new and exciting. It's so satisfying to see them smile as if they've just discovered something delicious."

RIESLING STILL REIGNS—AND IT'S DRIER

My Alsace discoveries, of course, included dozens of expertly crafted Rieslings. The grape remains the most planted grape in Alsace (nearly 22% of vineyard acreage). This regal, age-worthy, high acid grape begs for food (especially after tasting 50 in an afternoon and the enamel on one's teeth is wearing thin). Fascinating fact: 10% of the world's Riesling is produced in Alsace.

Interestingly, I detected a shift in the last 10 to 15 years, with the wines made in a drier style. Olivier Humbrecht, winemaker at his family's Domaine Zind-Humbrecht estate, told me that he believes this has to do with the conversion to Biodynamics. "There is early physiological ripeness because the vines are stress-free. We can then harvest earlier with healthier grapes, less sugar, better acidity and ultimately drier wines."

PROMISE OF PINOT

Philippe Blanck, one of the most generous owners I've had the privilege to meet, has been a passionate promoter of Pinot Noir in a region far more famous for white wines. Blanck—who has worked with the variety for over 30 years—believes the combination of warmer seasons and increased demand has led to more growers planting the grape, which is up to 10% of total plantings in Alsace (40 years ago it was only 2%).

Climate change combined with lower yields had really helped the ripeness factor across the board in all the Pinots I

Fifteen percent of the regions vineyards are certified organic or biodynamic, a sharp increase from a decade ago.

Pinot Noir

tasted (years ago, most would have been tart).

Fair sticker prices are another plus: It is a serious bonus for a sommelier to be able to sell Old World Pinot at value prices.

Paul Grieco, owner of Terroir wine bar in Tribeca, states "I believe the future of Alsatian Wine is Pinot Noir. It's a brand new playing field and will ultimately benefit all the varietals."

My favorites all shared a characteristic spice component—cloves, star anise and nutmeg. Thanks to their acidity, these wines can age remarkably. Other Pinot Noir producers I found notable: Albert Mann, Pfister, Schlumberger and Zusslin.

CRAZY FOR CRÉMANT

Another trend causing a rise in Pinot Noir production is the focus on Crémant—the second most coveted sparkling wine in France after Champagne. Sparkling wine in Alsace can be made from the following grapes Pinot Blanc, Riesling, Pinot Gris, Auxerrois, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Crémant D'Alsace Rosé is made from 100% Pinot Noir. In 2012, Crémant d'Alsace accounted for 24% of overall production; in 2014 it was up to 26%. And the numbers continue to rise. This is good news for bubbly lovers looking for quality and value. ■
