2025 SCHEDULE OF PURCHASE PERIODS & DUE DATES

Alcohol and Tobacco Commission
Regulatory and Research Section
410-260-7314

NOTICE TO RETAILERS

If wine and/or distilled spirits have been delivered to a retail licensee by a wholesaler or manufacturer on or before the PURCHASE DATE indicated in Column I, and payment is not received by the wholesaler on or before the corresponding DUE DATE listed in Column II, then the retailer is considered by state regulation to be overdue. Retailers can avoid most problems associated with late mail deliveries by mailing remittances at least five (5) days before the specified DUE DATES.

Regulation 03.02.01.04 requires Maryland wholesalers and manufacturers who sell wine and distilled spirits to retailers to (1) report the retailer to the Regulatory and Licensing Section for late payment (even if payment was received after the due date) and (2) simultaneously notify the retailer that a report has been submitted to the Regulatory and Licensing Section. Reports and notifications must be made for all late payments. The Regulatory and Licensing Section will determine whether or not the retailer is placed on the credit control list.

How to Figure Gross Profits

Experience has proven that few business people know the difference between MARK-UP and GROSS PROFIT, and thus cannot figure profits properly. Keep the following schedule before you and you will find it worth many dollars in the course of a year.

MARK-UP – is the percentage of the amount you earn on COST.

HOW TO FIGURE IT – A brand costs you $50.00 a case and sells for $75.00 a case, or $25.00 above your cost. Divide the cost ($50.00) into your earnings ($25.00) and you will get a percentage of 50%...This is your MARK-UP on COST.

GROSS PROFIT – is the percentage of the amount you earn on SELLING PRICE.

HOW TO FIGURE IT – a brand costs you $50.00 a case and sells for $75.00 a case, or $25.00 above your cost. Divide the SELLING PRICE ($75.00) into your earnings ($25.00) and you get a percentage of 33 1/3. This is your Gross Profit on Selling Price. This means that you earn 33 1/3 cents on each $1.00 in sales to apply to your expense of operation, which ultimately will show your net profit.

Mark-Up

Gross Profit

5% added to cost is	4.75% profit on selling price

15% added to cost is	13% profit on selling price
20% added to cost is	16.33% profit on selling price
25% added to cost is	20% profit on selling price
30% added to cost is	23% profit on selling price
35% added to cost is	26% profit on selling price
45% added to cost is	31% profit on selling price
50% added to cost is	33.33% profit on selling price
55% added to cost is	35.5% profit on selling price
60% added to cost is	37.5 % profit on selling price
70% added to cost is	41% profit on selling price
80% added to cost is	44.5% profit on selling price
85% added to cost is	46% profit on selling price

Confusing Mark-Up and Gross Profit Can Bankrupt You

MARK-UP/GROSS PROFIT CONVERSION

MARK-UP is the percentage you earn on the COST of an item you sell. GROSS PROFIT is the percentage you earn on the SELLING PRICE of the item. Confuse them and you get an over-optimistic view of your business.

When you relate earnings to sales, think only of Gross Profit. In terms of sales, Mark-Up has no meaning. Gross Profit tells you what you earn--retain--on each $1 of sales to pay you business expenses. Anything left over is net profit.

NOTE: Mark-Up percentages below are converted to Gross Profit percentages by rounding to nearest 1/10 of 1%.

MARK-UP – How to Compute It:

A brand costs you $75 a case and brings in $90 - -$15 above cost. Divide your earnings ($15) by your cost ($75) and you get a mark-up on cost of 20%.

GROSS PROFIT – How to Compute It:

The same brand costs you $75 and brings in $90-$15 above cost. Divide your earnings ($15) by your selling price ($90) and you get a gross profit on selling of 16.7% -- 16.7 cents on each $1.00 of sales – to pay expenses.

MARYLAND WINE IS...

GOOD FOR WINE LOVERS

Maryland's 85 wineries produce superb, handcrafted wines that compete with national brands, while highlighting all the benefits of buying local.

GOOD FOR AGRICULTURE

Maryland wineries support (and grow!) over 800 acres of grapes throughout the state. Grapes are a long-term crop, preserving open space and encouraging land preservation.

GOOD FOR TOURISM

Our industry attracts nearly 400,000 visitors annually to our wineries and wine festivals and events. These visitors spend their dollars at wineries, neighboring restaurants and accommodations.

GOOD FOR MARYLAND

Our wineries provide employment and tax revenue, supporting Maryland's rural economy by creating jobs that create tourism, preserve land and encourage agriculture. Maryland's wineries create 100 million in economic activity annually.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Facebook and Twitter @MDwine and be a part of the growth of great local wine industry.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that only 3 out of every 100 bottles of wine sold in the state are bottles of Maryland wine. It's not a lot, but it's growing, and if you buy more local wine, you create more local jobs, grow more vineyards and help preserve our rural economy.

JOIN MARYLAND WINE MONTH

We're promoting stores and restaurants that support Maryland wine during Maryland Wine month in March.

HOW EMIDIO PEPE REDEFINED ABRUZZO WINE

BY REJECTING POPULAR—AND PROFITABLE—TRENDS, EMIDIO PEPE BECAME ONE OF THE MOST ICONIC NAMES IN ITALIAN WINE

BY OSET BABÜR-WINTER

Often competing for attention on bottle lists alongside cult-status producers from Tuscany and Piemonte, it's not always easy for the wines of lesser-known Abruzzo to tempt the American consumer. But ask any sommelier or industry expert, and two producers will always surface as key exceptions to the region's relatively humble reputation: Valentini, who is lauded for the complexity of their Trebbiano d'Abruzzos—and Emidio Pepe, who redefined the region's red grape, Montepulciano, with their perfectly aged examples.

"Emidio Pepe proved to the world the potential, quality, and ageability of grapes from Abruzzo," says Jeff Porter, a wine educator who also hosts wine tours throughout Italy. Michael Duffy, the wine director at New York City's Michelin-starred Italian restaurant Rezdôra and newly opened Massara, which each feature nearly a dozen vintages of the signature variety from the producer, agrees. "Through Pepe's efforts, Montepulciano was given its first opportunity to shine as a 'noble' variety," says Duffy.

But Pepe's big break didn't happen overnight. It's the result of going against popular—and profitable—trends, as well as an almost bullish bet on quality over quantity. "Their winemaking philosophy is one of almost ascetic patience, coupled with deep sensitivity to the environment and the integrity and diversity of the ecosystem," adds Duffy.

SWIMMING AGAINST THE CURRENT

In many ways, the single greatest challenge to Emidio Pepe's success has been the region itself.

"In the '70s and '80s, wineries in Italy and the U.S. were on totally different timelines," explains fifth-generation winemaker Chiara De Iulis Pepe, whose grandfather, Emidio, took over the winery in 1964. "Italians were all about growing fast and embracing industrialization. Grandfather wasn't growing super quickly, he wasn't adopting all of the new innovations ... he cared about artisanality and details, and that meant resisting and staying small.”

Essentially, De Iulis Pepe says, the “big problem” for Abruzzo was that so many winemakers went “so big so fast, which kind of killed details, killed artisanality, [and] killed precision.”

But over the past 60 years, Emidio Pepe’s production has remained small, at just about 80,000 bottles per year, ensuring the attention to detail was never lost. Plus, about 40 percent of production is held back for aging, and de Iulis Pepe, who took over winemaking in 2020, aims to raise that number to 65 percent thanks to the winery’s recently expanded cellar space. This is because the winery doesn’t stick to a typical annual release schedule. Instead, the wines are released on a more subjective basis depending on balance, maturity, and drinkability.

Another reason for Emidio Pepe’s success is the care the winery takes to marry its traditional winemaking values with the health of the environment. “[The vineyards] have been biodynamic since long before it was in vogue, and the health of the microbiological community is prized,” says Duffy. For example, in areas where other winemakers in the region might plant vines to maximize yields, Pepe planted sunflowers to invest in soil health.

Doug Polaner, whose New York City-based company, Polaner Selections, has been importing Emidio Pepe wines since 2005, notes that few wineries in the world make this kind of enormous investment, which is just one more factor that sets Emidio Pepe apart from great wineries in Italy—and the world at large.

CAPTURING THE U.S. MARKET

After being excluded from a consortium trip to New York City in the early 1970s, Pepe packed a suitcase with a few bottles of Montepulciano and made the trip himself, confident that his wines would reach a willing audience. He was right; the American market was much more receptive to his winemaking philosophy, which celebrated labor and time-intensive traditions like hand-harvesting and destemming grapes, crushing them manually, and generally avoiding the siren call of mechanization.

“He spoke no English, and he basically walked into the first Italian restaurant he could find,” says De Iulis Pepe. “The owner met with him, and the following day, he met with an importer who spoke Italian, and that was the start.”

The winery also found an indispensable early champion in legendary chef Lidia Bastianich, who, even before opening her first restaurant in the early ’70s, favored Pepe wines for her home consumption. As her influence on Italian cuisine in the United States grew with her restaurant empire in New York City and beyond, Pepe was along for the ride: “Every time I would walk into any of those restaurants, I always had the impression that everybody there had a reverence and knowledge around [our] wines,” De Iulis Pepe says.

As more progressive Italian restaurants opened their doors in major cities around the country, the opportunity to showcase wines from beyond the usual suspects of Piedmont and Tuscany expanded. “These places offered an open-your-mind experience with producers and regions that were not quite part of the ‘fine wine’ establishment but could nonetheless dazzle with their inherent quality and unique attributes,” explains Polaner.

“It has been a slow build over many years,” he adds. “There is also the notion of pedigree associated with top wines that can age well and truly benefit from cellaring. The Pepes took that one step further and actually aged the wines in their cellars and released some of them later to show them in their uber-complex and fully mature stages of development, a practice that they continue to this day.”

By applying thoughtful innovation to her winemaking, De Iulis Pepe sees Emidio Pepe’s role evolving into lauded ambassadors for a new generation of Abruzzo wine.

“If you’re a young winemaker in Italy, Abruzzo is the dream place to go and start a project,” she says. “The land is viable, and it’s not like Piemonte where you need a ton of money. There is proof of terroir, and not much legislation and constraints around winemaking. You can truly put your creativity into the service of making wine.” ■

AS A CONDITION OF SALE: Invoices not paid within two (2) weeks after due dates established by the Alcohol Tobacco Tax Division (ATTD) for payment of such invoices are subject to one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) per thirty (28) days late payment charges. All merchandise at prevailing prices subject to availability. All payments made on delinquent accounts apply first to late payment charges and the remainder, if any, applies to delinquent balance. There will be a service charge of $50.00 for all returned checks. For any returns due to account closings permitted by state regulation (excluding permanent accounts with seasonal closings), there will be a 15% return-to-stock fee. Customers shall pay collection costs of 15% of invoice amount if the claim is referred to an attorney or agency for the purpose of collection. Our invoice prices include the following "less than full case charge" per bottle:

1.5L or larger, over 50oz	1.40
1L to 1.49L, 32oz to 50oz	1.80
451ml to 946ml, 16oz to 31.9oz	1.60
51ml to 450ml, 1.7oz to 15.9oz	1.55
50ml or smaller, Less than 1.7oz	.60

A refundable deposit on the sale of keg products. If empty kegs are not returned, the cost of the cooperage may be assessed. Minimum requirements for delivery: bottles or cases totalling 5 cases, or an order of $300.00.

The prices listed in the Beverage Journal are subject to change.

Less than full case purchases are subject to a split case charge.

All beer products are sold full case only
